

About the Super Y-League Program

---

What is the Super Y League?

The Super Y League is a nationwide league that features the top youth players and teams in the country. The future of elite soccer lives in the United Soccer League's Super Y League (SYL), a professionalized system that is the first step for developing elite youth soccer players in North America. Affiliated with United States Soccer Federation and partnered with US Club Soccer, the Super Y League Olympic Development Program (ODP) has opened countless doors for players to be identified for U.S. National Team programs. Super Y League is designed for talented youth players destined for collegiate, professional, or international careers. United Soccer Leagues Super Y-League has revolutionized youth player development in North America. To be the best, players must play with and against the best. Super Y League is simply the best youth soccer program in North America

Super Y League Philosophy

To identify players for U.S. National Team Programs, within their natural environment during competition throughout the Super Y League season. The Super Y League will provide a full picture of a player's abilities.

Program Description History

In 2002, the Super Y-League, through US Soccer and the United States Olympic Committee, was granted ODP programs to identify players for U.S. National Team Programs. The first selection process began during the 2003 season to identify players for Regional Team selection events, where U.S. National Staff Coaches scouted players for National Team Programs. The Super Y-League North American Finals is another ODP program of the system. In addition to many players being identified for U.S. National Team Programs, top players have been identified by leading college and university soccer programs throughout the United States.

Which clubs compete in Super Y League?

Over 100 clubs throughout North America compete annually for a National Championship. Mequon United teams participate in the Midwest Division – which includes teams representing Alliance FC, Chicago Fire, Chicago Magic, Cleveland International, Indiana Invaders, Kalamazoo Kingdom, Kings Soccer Academy, London Gryphon, TKO Premier, Toronto Lynx and West Michigan Fire.

How do I participate?

Contact a local club (Mequon Soccer Club) that participates in the Super Y-League to become a part of the Super Y-League ODP system. Players will be scouted during league play by the national scouting system of the Super Y-League, which is comprised of selected qualified individuals within the clubs of the league.
